

Max (aka Dapper Dan) is 8 months old now and developing into a handsome young fella. He lives in Coromandel with Kirsty and her family.

Kirsty writes;

"Max has fitted in well with our 4 other pets. He loves playing with our siamese cat.

Everyone loves Max, even my partner (who didn't want any more cats!)

We have a paddling pool out the back which he loves playing in, so he always has wet paws.

Have tried to get more photos of him but he's hard to pin down as he's outside adventuring all day and sometimes at night. He meows when he comes in to let us know he's there.

He's a bit of a thief and tries to steal meat from the bench if we're not careful.

He's a sweet little guy and gets on so well with our other cats and dogs.

He has just come home covered in mud from the creek - again!!

Max is loving being here!"